Our clients.

Working with Charter Hall.

Charter Hall is a leading property investment management company. They have completed thousands of projects and over 38,000 investor and tenant customers.

Mesh Direct has been working with the construction industry for over a decade. In that time we've learnt a thing or two about how to create top-notch signage. We have loved bringing our wealth of knowledge to the table for our client Charter Hall over the time we have been working together.

Some of the signage solutions we have provided to Charter Hall include:

- Premium banner mesh
- Standart banner mesh
- Billboard signage
- Container signage

Our clients.

We've also loved working with Scentre Group.

Scentre Group own and operate Westfield in Australia and New Zealand. The Group's shopping centres contain numerous famous retail brand and attract millions of shoppers every year.

We have assisted with shopping centre development signage for Scentre all over Australia. Every job with them is large-scale, involves collaborating with numerous parties and ensuring superb quality.

Signage we have provided to Scentre Group:

- Corflute signage
- Premium banner mesh
- Vinyl banners
- Directional signage
- Lift access signage
- Safety signs

Our projects.

Some of our other projects and capabilities.

Royal Exhibition Building, Melbourne

Using our Premium Banner Mesh.

We worked with Museums Victoria to create a huge 26-metre tall piece of artwork, the iconic Sylph of Spring. Printed on our premium banner mesh building wrap and mounted on temporary scaffolding while the Royal Exhibition Building underwent renovations.

Our projects.

City of Sydney Hoardings

Using our Vinyl Banner Hoardings.

We know a thing or two when it comes to city commissioned artwork and hoardings, having worked within city guidelines for numerous clients.
